An encaustics and artmaking techniques workshop is being held for Year 11 and Year 12 Visual Arts students in Week 7 on Thursday, 12th March 2020. The students will be expertly guided through an encaustic technique workshop, exploring materials and layering imagery in the development of 2-D and 3-D artworks. These specialised techniques require processes that take extended lengths of time and steps to complete beyond the usual single 45 minute or double lessons. Students will be working on imagery and ideas in class in the lead up to this workshop. Ms Rogers and Ms Albany will be assisting with supervision, development of techniques and ideas for their artworks.

All Year 11 and 12 Visual Arts students are required to participate in this artmaking workshop as the artworks produced will contribute to their assessment.

Students are to attend homeroom in the morning and attend RA2 and RA3 promptly at the beginning of P1. Students will have their usual recess and lunch breaks.

If you have any questions regarding the workshop day, please contact Ms Jasmin Rogers or Ms Albany at the College.

There is no requirement to return a permission note. This letter is to notify students and parents of a change in usual routine for this day and to prepare in advance for the artmaking activities in the workshop.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Naomi Fitzgerald
Leader of Creative Arts
